No nation will ever attack a unified and prepared America. His Last Message In the fight for Americanism there must be no lagging back. From a speech delivered in Chicago in 1903: Speak softly and carry a big stick and you will go far. If the American nation will speak softly and yet build and keep at a pitch of the highest training a thoroughly efficient navy, the Monroe Doctrine will go far. From a lecture on the World Movement at the University of Berlin, May 12th, 1910: This world movement of civilization which is now felt throbbing in every corner of the globe, should bind the nations of the world together, while yet...
