When he is invited to visit an orphanage on Christmas Eve he goes expecting to support the children. Yet one little boy teaches Arby more than he ever could have imagined. He soon realizes as the events of the day unfold, that much of what happens in life is not just happenstance. The Lord has more to do with molding and shaping our lives than we give him credit for. Lose yourself for a few minutes this Christmas in a simple but profound story that will not only touch your heart but may inspire you to do something you never thought possible.
