Willard Warner, of Alabama, Delivered in the Senate of the United States, March 3, 1871 Constricliou 1860 to 1871.The Senate having under consideration the following amendment, proposed by Mr. Wauner, to the joint resolution (li. R.No. 521) repealins the duly on coal: And that all political disabilities imposed by law or by tho Constitution of the United States upon citizens of the United States on account of rebellion are hereby removed Mr. Warner said: Mr. Presidext: He who would approach the discussion or treatment of a great question of Government, involving the welfare of a large portion of the people, in a purely partisan spirit or with any other intent than to state the truth as he sees it, and to act as his best judgment and conscience dictate, is unworthy to be a citizen of a free country, much less to be an American Senator. I hold my allegiance to truth and country far above my obligation to party. I support and act with a great political...
