O. , 2004. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)56358747 Subject: Emigration and immigration law -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 These are not easy or popular issues and I commend the President for his bold leadership, in stepping forward, issuing another kind of wake-up call, to focus the bright light of public attention on these issues. The Chairmanship of this Committee often is not an easy or popular job, so I also commend you for your leadership, Mr. Chairman. I agree with the President, and with my colleagues who also have come here today to talk about their bills, on many of the broad, key principles necessary for a lasting solution. Increased enforcement is part of the solution - but only part. In the last decade, we have tripled the number of agents securing our borders and enforcing our immi-gration laws. Worker identification checks have intensified. Formal removals have increased sixfold. However, the population of undocumented individuals living here has more than doubled. Consider, also, what the enforcement only answer really means. No, Americans will not tolerate a vast, intrusive government sweep through our homes and neigh-borhoods to find, flush out, investigate, prosecute, and forcibly relocate men, women, and children numbering six to nine times the population of Idaho. We fought a Rev-olutionary War over that kind of government intrusion. From the founding of our republic, Americans have always abhorred other nations sending storm troopers door to door in communities, looking for suspected infractions of domestic laws. Those who say, Just round em up, just enforce the law, are only proposing an excuse, not a...
