Not illustrated. 1904 Excerpt: .and Oral Interpretation of Literature, so that, so far as admission to the University is concerned, these subjects are exactly on a par with all other entrance subjects. IV. Admission On Examination So much recapitulation has seemed necessary to the Committee to explain what has been accomplished toward making more direct and frictionless the transition from the high school to the University, and to indicate of how little concern to the candidate would be the abandonment of entrance examinations. Circular No. H (December, 1891) announced as the policy of the University, that (at the close of the academic year) entrance examinations would be held in Palo Alto and simultaneously at other appointed places. This provision was continued until 1896, and it was customary to send entrance questions to any locality upon application of responsible parties. Thus, in 1895, such examinations were held at Portland, Los Angeles, Pasadena, San Luis Obispo, and Bradford, Pa.; in 1896, at Areata, Pasadena, the Thatcher School, and Los Angeles. This practice was discontinued because it was found to meet no real need, while the expense and trouble were very considerable. The number of students admitted wholly on examination has never been large, and has finally become an almost negligible quantity. Thus, the number in 1893 was 22; in 1894, 17; in 1895, 15; in 1904, 3; in 1905,6; in 1906, 5. The number of candidates needing to take entrance examinations in one or more subjects, to supplement credits received on certificate...
